

The better you know God's names the more you'll want to pray.

God is Jehovah. He is self-existent and eternal. He is the LORD.

When you pray to Jehovah . . .

Willingly bow before him. Before me every knee with bow; by me every tongue will swear. They will say of me, 'In the LORD alone are righteousness and strength' (Isaiah 45:23).

Converse as friends. The LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend (Exodus 33:11).

Thank Him for who He is. The LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, maintaining love to thousands and forgiving wickedness, rebellion, and sin (Exodus 34:6-7).

Praise Him. The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation (Isaiah 12:2).

Thank Him for His love. I have loved you with an everlasting love; I have drawn you with lovingkindness (Jeremiah 31:3).

Trust Jehovah to do what He says. I will redeem you with an outstretched arm (Exodus 6:6).

Expect Him to be just. The LORD is righteous, he loves justice (Psalm 11:7).

Let the LORD carry you. In all their distress he too was distressed, and the angel of his presence saved them. In his love and mercy he redeemed them; he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old (Isaiah 63:9).

Enthusiastically applaud Jehovah; find joy in who He is. Blessed are those who have learned to acclaim you, who walk in the light of your presence, O LORD. They rejoice in your name all day long (Psalm 89:15-16).
