

Our Creator is worthy of worship.

The Lord made the earth by his power, and he preserves it by his wisdom. With his own understanding he stretched out the heavens (Jeremiah 10:12).

When you pray to our Creator . . .

Join those who worship before His throne. “You are worthy, our Lord and God, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things (Revelation 4:11).

Praise Him for creating you. “I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made (Psalm 139:14).

Believe that He knows you. He made your heart so he understands everything you do (from Psalm 33:15).

Ask to be forgiven. “We are the clay, you are the potter; we are all the work of your hand. O Lord; do not remember our sins (Isaiah 64:8-9).”

Dedicate your life and all you have to Him. “All things were created by him and for him (Colossians 1:16).”

Trust Him with the lives of the not-yet-born. You knit them together in their mother’s womb. All the days ordained for them were written in your book before one of them came to be (from Psalm 139:13-16).

Come to Him any time, day or night. “The Lord is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He will not grow tired or weary, and his understanding no one can fathom (Isaiah 40:28).”

Give God glory. He says, “I have made them for my glory (Isaiah 43:7).”
